Application for Membership

To the Executive Board (c/o First Vice-President):

I hereby apply for membership in the Cottonwood Ladies Golf Club. I am aware of and understand that the following factors relate to this application:

- (1) The applicant agrees to respect and adhere to all provisions of the Bylaws of the Cottonwood Ladies Golf Club or alterations thereto adopted by the Executive Board.
- (2) The purpose of joining this golf club is to promote good fellowship and sportsmanship and to take an active participation in club meetings and tournaments.
- (3) Annual dues are $85 and cover membership for the calendar year and include the Southern California Golf Association's (SCGA) annual $36 handicapping fee. The dues for an application for a partial-year membership (starting after July 1st), are pro-rated at $50.
- (4) If an applicant has an established handicap (or if this application is accompanied by five or more scorecards from any regulation 18-hole course), the applicant will be able to participate in weekly competitions immediately. If the applicant is establishing a handicap, she may acquire five scorecards by playing on Tuesday Ladies Day or by playing any regulation 18-hole course at any time. Until the five scores have been obtained and submitted to the Handicap Chair, she cannot participate in any Ladies Club competitions.

Cottonwood Ladies Golf Club is a member club of the San Diego County Women's Golf Association (SDCWGA). The Association provides field days, team play, and county championships. Membership in SDCWGA is included in Cottonwood Ladies Club dues.
